THEY PROPOSE SOLUTION

Quintus, the son of the Emperor, was the first to be executed. He was a young man of great promise, but he was also a man of great ambition. He wanted to be a great ruler, like his father. He was a man of great energy and great courage. He was a man of great faith and great hope. He was a man of great love and great kindness. He was a man of great wisdom and great understanding. He was a man of great strength and great power. He was a man of great honor and great respect. He was a man of great glory and great fame. He was a man of great joy and great happiness. He was a man of great peace and great harmony. He was a man of great love and great kindness. He was a man of great wisdom and great understanding. He was a man of great strength and great power. He was a man of great honor and great respect. He was a man of great glory and great fame. He was a man of great joy and great happiness. He was a man of great peace and great harmony.
